Who We Look For
As our second largest office in the Americas and fourth largest globally, Goldman Sachs Salt Lake City will experience significant growth over the next few years, and we are looking for talented, intelligent and ambitious people to drive our business forward. You’ll find opportunities available across the firm’s business functions, including: Finance, Global Compliance, Global Investment Research, Human Capital Management, Investment Management, Investment Banking, Operations, Services and Technology.

At Goldman Sachs, we encourage career mobility within and across our businesses. Many of our people have found that working in a regional office gave them more responsibility early on and greater exposure to all of the firm’s divisions. You can count on working in a diverse and stimulating environment alongside people from different backgrounds, experience and cultures.

Working Here
Considered one of the best places to live in the United States, the Salt Lake City area offers great outdoor recreation, all the amenities of a large metropolitan city, affordable living and a growing economy.
