
Ezra Nahum

Securities

New York

Ezra is head of Securities Division Engineering and Operations. He is a member of the Securities Division ExecComm.

Previously, Ezra was global head of FICC Strats within the Securities Division, including FICC Desk Strats and FICC Sales Strats. He was also global head of Divisional Strats and Principal Investing Strats in the Securities Division. Before that, Ezra managed Global Macro Desk Strats, Mortgages Strats, Commodities Strats, Americas Macro Sales Strats and Divisional Strats. He joined Goldman Sachs as a managing director in 2007 and was named partner in 2010.

Prior to joining the firm, Ezra worked at Bear Stearns, where he was a senior managing director leading the Interest Rates Derivatives Quantitative Research Group beginning in 2002. From 1999 to 2002, he was a quantitative analyst and then an interest rates derivatives trader for BNP Paribas.

Ezra earned a Diplome d'Etudes Approfondies (DEA) from the Universite Paris VI and a Diplome d'Ingenieur from the Ecole Nationale Superieure de Techniques Avancees. He also earned a PhD in Statistics from the University of California, Berkeley, in 1999.

