Regulatory Ratios February 28, 2019

Introduction

Goldman Sachs International (GSI or the company) provides a wide range of financial services to clients located worldwide. The company's primary regulators are the Prudential Regulation Authority (PRA) and the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). The company's ultimate parent undertaking and controlling entity is The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. (Group Inc.).

In 2018, the company changed its accounting reference date from December 31 to November 30. As such, the company's first quarter for 2019 is the three months ended February 28, 2019. Comparative regulatory ratios, below, have been provided as of November 30, 2018.

Copies of GSI's financial statements, that provide additional information about GSI and its business activities, can be obtained from www.goldmansachs.com/investor-relations.

Regulatory Ratios

The company's capital requirements are expressed as capital ratios prepared in accordance with the E.U. Fourth Capital Requirements Directive (CRD IV) and the E.U. Capital Requirements Regulation (CRR). Certain CRD IV and CRR rules are subject to final technical standards and clarifications. The capital, risk-weighted assets (RWAs) and estimated ratios are based on current interpretation, expectations and understanding of CRD IV and CRR, and may evolve as their interpretation and application is discussed with the company's regulators.

- The Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) ratio is defined as CET1 capital divided by RWAs. The CET1 ratio under CRD IV was 12.1% as of February 28, 2019, compared with 11.6% as of November 30, 2018.
- The leverage ratio is defined as Tier 1 capital divided by a measure of leverage exposure, being the sum of certain assets plus certain off-balance-sheet exposures (which include a measure of derivatives, securities financing transactions, commitments and guarantees), less Tier 1 capital deductions. The company's leverage ratio under CRR was 4.4% as of February 28, 2019, compared with 4.2% as of November 30, 2018.

The regulatory ratios include the impact of the company's unaudited profit, after foreseeable charges and dividends, for the three months ended February 28, 2019. The ratios included in this report are preliminary estimates and may be revised in company's Unaudited Quarterly Financial Report for the quarter ended February 28, 2019.
