

My long term goals and ambitions for golf are to contend. I want to be the best. The reason why I love the game of golf is the competitiveness. There's nothing like the high of contending in a tournament. The rush of emotions. I love feeling that because I think that's where my true happiness comes from. The focus that I put in, the work that I put in it just motivates me. And I don't want to just be good. I want to be exceptional.
