

I would say the difference between great players and exceptional players is their mindset. Are you doing this because you love the game or are you doing it for another reason because it's your job? I fell in love with the game of golf when I was 14 years old. I qualified for the U.S. Women's Open, probably the biggest major in the women's game. And I thought to myself, this is what I want to do for the rest of my life.
