
C. Kane Brenan

Investment Management
New York

Kane is global head and co-chief investment officer of the Global Portfolio Solutions (GPS) Group for Goldman Sachs Asset Management within the Investment Management Division. The GPS Group provides multi-asset class products and solutions for institutional and individual investors, focusing on customized asset allocation, tactical implementation, risk management and portfolio construction. The GPS Group serves clients globally, from offices located in New York, Bengaluru, London, Tokyo and Salt Lake City.

Kane also serves as a member of the Goldman Sachs Asset Management Operating Group and the division's Client Experience Group. Previously, he was a member of the Private Equity Investment Committee in the Alternative Investments & Manager Selection Group, where he invested in the private equity secondary market. Prior to that, Kane worked in the Investment Banking Division in the Leveraged Finance

Group and the Technology, Media and Telecom Group. He joined Goldman Sachs as an associate in 1998 and was named managing director in 2007 and partner in 2014.

Prior to joining the firm, Kane worked as a corporate law associate at Cravath, Swaine & Moore.

Kane earned a BA from Boston College and a JD, magna cum laude, and an MBA from Georgetown University, where he was a Beta Gamma Sigma Scholar and an editor of The Georgetown Law Review.