
Michele Della Vigna
Global Investment Research
London

Michele is co-head of European Equity Research. He is a member of the Global Investment Research Client and Business Standards Committee and the European Investment Review Committee. Previously, Michele was co-manager of the Commodities and Energy business unit in European Equity Research from 2009 to 2014. He joined Goldman Sachs in 2001 as a financial analyst in European Energy Equity Research and was named managing director in 2009.

Michele earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Bocconi University in 2001.