Celebrating Culture

Our client franchise is global, broad, and deep — and our teams span more than 100 offices around the world to serve our clients both globally and in each local market with excellence. Across all of our locations around the world, we continue to focus on developing exceptional teams and investing in our culture and core values.

Throughout the year, we offered signature engagement programs and in-person networking, providing opportunities for our people to connect with their colleagues and senior leaders to share perspectives and advice.

A circular graphic is centered around the question: We asked our people what they value most about our culture. They told us: Inclusive Environment, Collaboration, Excellence, High Integrity, Outstanding Client Service, Supportive Teams.

Quote from Jacqueline Arthur, global head of Human Capital Management:

“As we progress into 2024, we are committed to ensuring that our people continue to see Goldman Sachs as the very best place to build and sustain an extraordinary career. I remain grateful for the opportunity to work alongside so many remarkable people, who partner to deliver the firm to our clients and are driven by our distinctive culture and a set of core values that have been embraced across generations and geographies.”

Where the best get better

Globally, our internship program is an extraordinary immersive experience for people starting their careers. While working in our offices, our interns have the opportunity to make outsized contributions to their teams and the firm through hands-on experiences. Similarly, our experienced hire integration leans heavily into our apprenticeship culture and investment in career development.

~70%+ of global partners participate in campus recruiting efforts throughout the year.
