What we do

How does Ayco protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Ayco collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
▪ Open an account or tell us about your investment portfolio
▪ Seek financial or tax advice or seek advice about your investments
▪ Enter into an investment advisory contract or give us your contact information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit some, but not all, sharing relating to:
▪ Affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
▪ Affiliates using your information to market to you
▪ Non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?
Your choices will apply individually unless you tell us otherwise.
